EMPLOYMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

FAVORHOUSE OF NORTHWEST FLORIDA, INC.

Job Title: Injunction for Protection (IFP) Project Attorney, 100% VOCA funded position

Pay: $60,000.00 - $75,000.00 per year

Job description:

The IFP Project Attorney is employed by FavorHouse of Northwest Florida, Inc., a certified domestic violence center, to provide direct representation to survivors of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual violence, and stalking in temporary and final injunction for protection proceedings and prosecutions of violations of injunctions.

The IFP Attorney represents 1) survivors seeking temporary injunctions and, after determining that seeking an injunction is safe and appropriate legal remedy, will complete and file the ex parte petition for injunction; represent the survivor at the final injunction hearing, and prosecute violations of the injunction; 2) survivors who have obtained a temporary injunction on their own and need representation at the hearing on the final injunction; and, 3) survivors who have a final injunction for protection and the respondent has violated the injunction.

The IFP Project Attorney will conduct extensive outreach and develop collaborative partnerships with entities such as the Clerk's Office, the Circuit Court, Law Enforcement Agencies, State Attorneys, and agencies working with special populations, health care providers, and faith-based organizations to develop referral protocols and to offer additional venues for the attorneys to meet with survivors who are seeking injunctions for protection.
